

Allvis Light™

Electronic measuring system

Allvis Light is the efficient and easy to use measuring tool for quick and easy point-to-point measurement. You can choose between taking a comparative measurement or using the supplied software. Allvis Light will help you work in a fast, accurate and efficient way.

FLEXIBILITY

You can use Allvis Light measuring system where it suits you best - on the lift, bench or floor.

ADVANTAGES

- » Short start-up time
- » Quick and easy way of turning point to point of the vehicle
- » Built in level allows to comparative measurement of height
- » Document the process with printing
- » Continuous updating of new models in the database
- » Unique magnetic mode requires single-person operation.

Art.no. ALL0100

Includes a complete measuring system with adaptors, software and 6 months database subscription.

Allvis Light is delivered in a heavy duty storage case.

